

سياسة الامتيازات والصلاحيات الاكلينيكية للأطباء : Policy Definitions

Clinical Privilege: Defined as the process by which a health practitioner is granted permission by a facility Healthcare, to provide medical care services (according to specialization), within clear limits, based on clinical competence And training, licensing and registration in the Saudi Commission for Health Specialties.

Special medical privileges: are specified By specialization according to the resources, devices, equipment and systems available in the health facility and the scope of services.

- Privileges are granted Clinical appointments for a period of more than two years, after which renewal takes place according to performance, with the privileges granted to him, or to add a new privilege.

سياسة الامتيازات والصلاحيات الاكلينيكية للأطباء : Policy Definitions

Licensed Independent Practitioner: Any person who is permitted by law and by the health facility to provide care and services. without direction or supervision, within the scope of the individual's license and consistent with individually granted clinical privileges.

Verification of the main source: the accuracy of the qualification of the practicing physician.

-verification is determined in variety of ways, include but are not limited to:

- 1.correspondence Direct and verification over the phone
- 2.through the official e-mail of the university granting the academic qualification or the hospital the grantor of the certificate of experience or the training center that grants the certificate of training.

Verification can be done through a third party called Applicant verification organizations, for example Dataflow

سياسة الامتيازات والصلاحيات الاكلينيكية للأطباء : Policy Definitions

Reference: A letter from a person or persons who can or can attest to the current professional and clinical judgment of the presenter, demand, competence and personality.

- Those references must fulfill the concept of “peer” (meaning that they are provided by people) have the same occupational major and degree as the applicant).
- For applicants who have recently completed or Those still in the training program or postgraduate studies are required to submit one reference letter from the training program.
- Other applicants who are currently working in a health facility are required to obtain a letter of recommendation from a president Doctors or department heads in the health institution

سياسة الامتيازات والصلاحيات الاكلينيكية للأطباء : Policy Definitions

-Basic privileges: means a specific set of privileges for the specialization or sub-specialty that includes essential patient care services that is routinely taught in the training period for that specialization or sub-specialty.

-Additional privileges: medical privileges that are requested by the doctor according to what is new in his scientific or practical field or what needed by the health facility in the scope of services

-after the practitioner has obtained training, there must be an evidence of that training either by a certificate or an evaluation of a “consulting doctor in the same specialty and having the same privileges or a record of cases in which he practices.” The privilege required at the time of training is documented and stamped by the granting authority, or all of the above, as the Privileges Committee deems appropriate.