

---

operating room. The neonate should not leave the place of delivery without the proper identification.

---

L&D.9 The medical records of the obstetrics department are properly completed.

L&D.9.1 The following information must be available in patients' records before discharge from the delivery room:

L&D.9.1.1 Completed assessment and reassessment.

L&D.9.1.2 Completed partogram.

L&D.9.1.3 Secured cardio-tocography.

L&D.9.1.4 Initial neonatal assessment.

L&D.9.1.5 Delivery summary including method of delivery, date and time of delivery, name and designation of the healthcare professional who conducted the delivery and any assistants, type of anesthesia or sedation used during delivery, neonatal outcome, status of placenta and membranes, any postpartum instructions, and postpartum observations and discharge criteria.

---

Standard Intent:

Care of patients in the obstetric department should be fully documented and medical records should be completed before patient discharge from the delivery room. The Medical records should contain the followings; completed assessment and reassessment, completed partogram, secured cardiotocography, initial neonatal assessment, delivery summary including method of delivery, date and time of delivery, name and designation of the healthcare professional who conducted the delivery and any assistants, type of anesthesia or sedation used during delivery, neonatal outcome, status of placenta and membranes, any postpartum instructions, and postpartum observations and evidence of the patient meeting the discharge from labor room criteria.

---

Hemodialysis Standard Intents

---

HM.1 Qualified nephrologist is responsible for managing the clinical services in the hemodialysis unit.

HM.1.1 Clinical services in the hemodialysis unit are led by a qualified nephrologist with experience in managing end stage renal disease (ESRD) patients.

---

Standard Intent:

The head of the hemodialysis unit should be a qualified nephrologist with experience in managing end-stage renal disease (ESRD) patients.

---

HM.2 Qualified nurse is responsible for supervising nursing services in the hemodialysis unit.

HM.2.1 The nurse in charge of the hemodialysis unit is a qualified registered nurse with training, education or experience in hemodialysis.

---