

Medical staff bylaws:

Medical staff bylaws: govern the organization, functions, and responsibilities of the medical staff, and serve as the primary source for the appropriateness of the professional performance and ethical practice

- Approved by the governing body.
- Consistent with acceptable medical staff practices.
- Consistent with laws and regulations.
- Describe the organizational structure of the medical staff.